Kent and the Arts

Tutor: John Brazier

Not everybody realises it, but Kent has influenced and been home to some of the most important of all painters, writers, film-makers and other creative artists. What is it about the county that has attracted such a wealth of artists to settle in the county, from Sevenoaks in the west to Margate in the east? Find out how Kent has inspired generations of artists and see some of the work they produced, which has been inspired by the county.

Wednesdays 2.00pm to 4.00

10 meetings from 23/09/2009 – C3727174
The Landmark Centre
129 High Street. Deal CT14 6BB

Researching Local History

Tutor: Maureen Criddle

We shall be celebrating the 100 year anniversary of the "Lloyd George's Little Domesday Book" and this will be included as part of the primary sources to be examined about a small area of Upper Deal. We hope to study other major topics during this period such as the First and Second Great Wars and the growth of the mining industry around Deal.

Research methods will be discussed with ways to unlock the wealth of information stored in Archives. Suitable for all levels of interest, knowledge and research experience.

Thursdays 2.00pm to 4.00 - C3727172

20 meetings fortnightly from 24/09/2009
The Landmark Centre
129 High Street, Deal CT14 6BB

Archaeology: Defending Kent?

Tutor: Irene Pellett

Beginning in the Iron Age we shall study of hilltop enclosures of Bigbury and Oldbury, moving on to study the Roman forts at Reculver, Richborough and Lympne. Centuries later came the Norman castles and their evolution - plenty to look at in Kent.

So who built the forts and castles of Kent - and why? Were they solely defensive or were they high status homes?

Fridays 1.30pm to 3.30

10 meetings from 25/09/2009 – C3727173
St Leonards Church Social Centre
323 London Rd, Deal CT14 9PR
